

PRIVACY POLICY of Dirty Dogs

Revision 2.0, Last updated January 01, 2024

Greetings, noble wanderer of the Dirty Dogs realm! While our land is filled with wondrous treasures and magical tales, it's also a place where your trust and privacy reign supreme. We understand that in the age of spells and scrolls (read: internet and cookies), your personal data is precious. So, as the keepers of this realm, we've forged this document to shed light on how we handle the treasures of your information.

General Information About Dirty Dogs E-Shop

This Privacy Policy apply for Dirty Dogs e-shop (available at <https://dirtydogs.eu>), which is operated by Valerie Běloglazová, Přepeřská 1698, 51101 Turnov, registration number 05561132. This entity can be further referred to as ("we," "us," or "our").

Cookie Chronicles

In our ever-evolving kingdom, there are magical beings known as cookies. These creatures aren't the edible sort, but they do help us understand how you navigate our land.

Guardian Cookies. Some cookies are like the noble knights of old, essential, and ever-present. They ensure our realm functions smoothly and efficiently. Without them, the shopping journey might not be as magical as we'd wish.

Scout Cookies. Then, there are those that gather tales and stories about our realm's visitors. They work with the renowned storytellers from Google, like Google Analytics 4, to weave stories about how our land is explored. But worry not! These stories never reveal your identity.

Herald Cookies. Lastly, there are heralds, bearing news and special offerings, potentially working with the likes of Google Ads. They ensure you're the first to know when a new treasure is unearthed.

Ordering Enchantments and Personal Scrolls

To make sure the treasures you've sought reach you, we need to know a little more about you. We handle sacred scrolls (aka, your data) such as names, addresses, e-mails, and sometimes raven numbers (or phone numbers) to ensure your orders are delivered seamlessly. As for the gold and silver coins (payment details)? Those are handled by the trustworthy wizards of MyPOS, ensuring we never lay eyes on your sensitive treasure details.

Prophetic Marketing Scrolls

While our bards don't currently sing many marketing songs, they might in the future. If they do, rest assured it's only to regale you with tales of new enchantments and magical offers. If ever you wish not to be part of this audience, you can tell us, and we shall respect your wishes.

Guarding the Kingdom's Secrets

In our land, trust is paramount. We never barter, sell, or disclose your scrolls to unknown wizards or realms, except those clearly stated in this tome, like our allies at Google. We ensure they too, uphold the sacredness of this trust.

The Rights of Magical Beings

In the vast landscapes of the EU, powerful rights have been bestowed upon its inhabitants. These rights extend to you, the noble visitors of our realm, as we're anchored in the magical lands of the Czech Republic. Should you wish to invoke these rights or have any scrolls (queries) about your data, send a raven to info@dirtydogs.eu, and our wise elders will promptly respond.

Contact Information

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact us at info@dirtydogs.eu.

Your trust is our greatest treasure. While our land is vast and magical, we always ensure you're safe, respected, and valued. Explore on, noble wanderer!
